★ SYNOPSIS ★

The story behind stickers on the street

Sticker Movie answers the question “Who is decorating the lampposts, street signs, and mailboxes with stickers?” and more importantly... “Why?” Sticker Movie is a film about sticker art, and the culture behind it, told by street artists, photographers, traders, and collectors.

The global community of “sticker people” who practice this art form are at the heart of this subculture. Featuring interviews with over 80 artists in 23 different countries, the film offers a rare glimpse into the underground world of this subset of graffiti.

Visually stimulating, with a combination of animation, user-generated-content, and 4k footage, Sticker Movie celebrates the nostalgia, thoughtfulness, and intensity of sticker art and the sticker enthusiasts who will never let the culture die.
