

GRANT GUIDELINES

Madison Cooper created the Cooper Foundation with a mission to make Waco, Texas a better or more desirable city in which to live. This is realized through grant awards to qualifying nonprofits in Waco, Texas. We are proud to fund projects that impact all aspects of life in Waco – education, health, arts and culture, community building and social services, and senior citizens.

Please note that we only fund programs that occur in Waco, Texas and only accept applications from organizations that have programming and staff in Waco. If a nonprofit organization would like to begin working in Waco, we recommend that they identify a local nonprofit partner.

TYPES OF GRANTS

Cooper Foundation provides grant funding to support the following types of grants:

- Project Support Grant – Funds a particular program or project.
- Capital Project Grant – Funds the purchase or construction of a building, land, or major equipment.
- Capacity Building Grant – Funds core organizational skills and capabilities, such as leadership, fundraising, and management.
- Challenge/Matching Grant – Provides funds with the expectation (or on the condition) that additional funds be raised from other sources.
- Innovation Grant – Funds projects that experiment with new solutions to social problems.

GRANT RESTRICTIONS

- Types of organization – Cooper Foundation only makes grants to 501(c)(3) public charities with a 509(a)(1) or (2) designation or to governmental agencies. We do not make grants to churches.
- Funding uses – Cooper Foundation does not fund individuals, scholarship programs, fundraising drives, or religious activities. We also do not sponsor events. We very rarely fund seed grants.
- Repeat grantees – With limited funds to award, we ask organizations to only apply one time within a 12-month period.

GRANT SIZES

We make grants of all sizes! Recently, our smallest grant was $600 for office equipment and the largest ever was $750,000 towards a very large capital project. Grant size depends multiple factors, including but not limited to the need, our familiarity with an organization, and the budget size of the organization seeking funding. Generally, we either grant the full request for funding, or we decline to fund a project. For that reason, please only ask for what you really need.

HOW TO APPLY

Nonprofit organizations seeking funding from the Cooper Foundation are highly encouraged to discuss their grant application with Foundation staff before and during its preparation. This can be a time-saver in determining whether a proposal fits within foundation guidelines, interests, and current priorities. Additionally, we can often help clarify plans and ideas and can offer advice on the preparation of a request. We know how precious time and resources are to nonprofit organizations, and we want to ensure that your time developing a proposal is well-spent. In other words – we don't want to waste anyone's time!

OUR PROCESS

1. Readiness Check: Please review the Organizational Readiness Checklist to determine if your organization is ready for foundation funding.
2. Grant Inquiry: Either submit a GRANT INQUIRY form OR call/meet with foundation staff to discuss your potential application.

There are no deadlines for grant inquiries. They are accepted on an ongoing basis. Once submitted, Cooper Foundation staff will review your inquiry and be in touch within a few weeks to let you know if you are invited to submit a full proposal. If you are on a tight timeline for a project, please be sure to state that online in the inquiry or give us a call to let us know.

3. Application: If your inquiry is accepted, you will be invited to submit a full grant proposal through the online system by invitation from Cooper Foundation staff. Grant submission due dates can be found on our website. The questions in our online grant application are in the pages that follow these guidelines. Please do not submit an application via email. Contact us if you need access to the portal!
4. Review: Once your application has been submitted, our staff will review the submitted documents to ensure we have everything we need and we will begin our due diligence process (details below). We may reach back out to you to ask for additional information, or if we received the wrong document from you. Once we have everything we need from you, we will share your application with the Cooper Board of Directors, who make the final decision regarding funding.

During our due diligence process, we are looking for strong, sustainable organizations that have a solid plan for the project for which they are seeking funding. The strongest organizations and their applications will include the following:

PROGRAM DESIGN:

- The organization clearly articulates what they plan to do; the proposed project has the ability to meet identified needs. Project objectives, methods, and evaluation are clearly defined and describe a sequence/flow and interaction of activities that will be used for measuring impact.
- Project demonstrates the incorporation of its sector's research and best practices.
- The organization has effectively identified the issue and population to be served in an understandable way and is able to demonstrate need with verifiable facts, statistics, and data.
- The project proactively works to reduce a duplication or overlap of services. Networks have been formed and the organization is engaged in consistent dialogue with other service providers. Organizational efforts promote problem solving that supports partnership and collaboration.

ORGANIZATIONAL CAPACITY:

- Collectively, board members are actively engaged, as demonstrated by attendance, financial contributions, and commitment. Board is strategically engaged in monitoring and planning for future needs and challenges.
- Organization has a solid, diversified fundraising plan in place and is working increasingly towards its self-sufficiency. Board is fully engaged in fundraising efforts.
- Organization is able to demonstrate a healthy fiscal position, the budget is equally balanced with regard to revenue and expenses, and the organization has funds to cover 3 months of expenses. Auditor's management letter is clean.

TECHNICAL COMPLIANCE:

- Documentation was received on time and was fairly complete. Submission follows guidelines and narrative clearly and comprehensively addresses application questions.

The review process typically takes 3-4 months from when we first receive your full grant proposal (not from when we receive your inquiry).

Please note that an invitation to submit a proposal does not imply a guarantee or promise of funding, but merely sufficient interest in a program and that the Board of Directors would like more information so that they may evaluate whether the program meets the Foundation's highest funding priorities.
